4 光^{ひかる} (Hikaru) と、光と同じ学校に通う留学生のアントニー (Antony) が放課後、教室で話をしています。2人の対話を読んで、あとの問いに答えなさい。

Hikaru : You had a Japanese *test today, right? Was it difficult for you?

Antony : (①) We had a lot of questions, but I soon finished answering all of them.

Hikaru : Oh, you're great!

Antony : I think that *happened because I studied with *the book you gave me. Thank you, Hikaru.

Hikaru : You're welcome. I hear you are going to visit Tokyo with your family. (②)

Antony : We haven't decided yet, but I think we will go in summer. My uncle lives in Tokyo alone, so we are going to visit and help him.

Hikaru : I hope you will have a good time.

Antony : Thank you. Hikaru, do you have any plans for this afternoon? I hope you will *help me with my homework.

Hikaru : I'm sorry, Antony. I'm going to go shopping with my *grandmother. She wants to buy a new computer, but she says it is difficult to choose one. Her computer is very old now.

Antony : Oh, your grandmother uses a computer! I'm *surprised to hear that. (③)

Hikaru : I hear she has used it for ten years. Now she uses a computer for her job. Do you know happa *business?

Antony : No, Hikaru. What kind of business is it?

Hikaru : Happa means *leaves in English. Some kinds of leaves are used to *decorate traditional Japanese *dishes, *especially in washoku restaurants. My grandmother has *collected leaves and *sold them to restaurants for three years.

Antony : That sounds interesting. Do many people do that business?

Hikaru : Yes, especially *elderly people like my grandmother. This business gives them a *chance to work and get money. Also, they have to walk a lot to collect leaves, so it helps them have good *health.

Antony : That's nice. I'm interested in happa business. (④)

Hikaru : Sure. Please come to my house when you have time.
